1977 COMMENCEMENT

University of Arkansas
Fayetteville

Saturday, May 14, 1977

NOTES ON CEREMONY

The Mace and Batons

These symbols of the authority and history of the University are made from newel posts from the original main staircase of Old Main, the oldest University building. They are carried by members of the faculty who have served as chairpersons of the University Senate or Campus Faculty. The Chief Marshal (macebearer) is the current chairperson of the Campus Faculty.

Marshals Gowns

The gowns worn by the marshals are of the traditional University color, Cardinal, or Razorback Red.

Honor Stoles

Cardinal or white stoles denote students who are candidates for University-wide honors. White represents High Honors (summa cum laude) and Cardinal represents Honors (cumma laude).

Academic Regalia

The styles of gowns differentiate degree level. Trim on doctoral gowns indicates nature of the degree (black or dark blue - Ph.D.; light blue - Ed.D.) The trim on all hoods identifies degree field. Lining of hoods denotes the color(s) of the institution awarding the degree. Certain members of the faculty wear distinctive gowns and hoods authorized by their doctoral institution.

Trustee Emeritus

Fred M. Pickens, Jr.

Honorary Degree Commendation

Pickens

Fred M. Pickens, Jr.

The superlative contributions of Fred M. Pickens, Jr. to Arkansas higher education are so exemplary that the University of Arkansas is departing from custom by designating him as the sole recipient of an honorary degree this year.

Mr. Pickens served for 21 years as a member, and five years as chairman of the University's Board of Trustees. His service on the Board was characterized by his policy making skills and his dynamic and articulate advocacy of the University's programs and objectives. While effectively interpreting the University's needs to its various publics and constituencies, he sought always to protect and preserve the University's academic integrity. The University is particularly indebted to him for his insistence on diverting much of his time and energies away from his successful careers in law and finance in order to carry forward his hopes and dreams for the progress of Arkansas higher education.

Mr. Pickens is the only individual ever to serve as chairman of the Boards of two Arkansas higher education institutions, having previously served in that capacity for Arkansas State College, now Arkansas State University.

Mr. Pickens is the senior partner in a long-established law practice in Newport. He has served in the past as City Attorney of Newport, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney of the Third Judicial District, President of the Junior Bar Association of Arkansas, member of the Executive Committee of the Arkansas Bar Association, and member of the Arkansas State Board of Law Examiners. He has served also as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Professional Underwriters Life Insurance Company, as Director and General Counsel for the Merchants and Planters Bank of Newport and the Bank of Tuckerman, and as the first chairman of the Directors Advisory Committee to the Arkansas Bankers Association.

Mr. Pickens has taken a long and active interest in the areas of politics and public affairs. He was a member of the State Democratic Committee for 20 years; Chairman of the Arkansas Delegation to the Democratic National Convention in 1952, and member of presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson's campaign staff in 1956.

He served his State and country with distinction in World War II when he was decorated for bravery as a gunnery officer on a light cruiser in the Battle of Surigao Straits.

He is a member of the University's Development Council and serves as chairman of the Presidents Club, a development arm of the University of Arkansas Foundation.

Ray C. Adam

Ray C. Adam is a man of exceptionally high stature in the business and industrial leadership of this country and the world. As chairman, president, and chief executive officer of National Lead Industries, Inc., he heads a firm whose business volume exceeds a billion dollars annually. He is also a director of Cities Service Corporation and the American Broadcasting Company (ABC).

The University of Arkansas and its College of Engineering first honored Mr. Adam by electing him to the College's Engineering Hall of Fame in 1967. He received his engineering degree from the University in 1942.

He joined NL Industries in 1972 as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, and was named the chief executive officer two years later. Prior to his association with this firm, he served the Mobil Oil Corporation in a number of executive capacities over a period of 26 years. He was appointed a corporate vice president of that firm, and as president of its Mobil Chemical Company subsidiary in 1970. He is currently Vice President and Director of the National Petroleum Refinery Association. He is a member of the Executive and Policy Committees of The Business Roundtable, and a trustee of the Committee for Economic Development, Inc. He is a director designate of the Manufacturing Chemists, Inc.

Active in civic and charitable endeavors, Mr. Adam has served as chairman of the Cerebral Palsy fund drive in New York City.

During World War II, Mr. Adam served as a munitions production officer.

Hugh L. Hembree, III

Hugh L. Hembree III, epitomizes the highest traditions of public service and business and economic leadership. As president of one of the largest corporations in Arkansas, Mr. Hembree has committed a substantial amount of his time, effort, and resources to the advancement of higher education and civic and charitable endeavors. As a member of the University of Arkansas Development Council, Mr. Hembree was instrumental in securing large donations by his firm and its founder, the late Robert A. Young Jr., which have immensely benefitted the construction and teaching programs of the University.

Arkansas higher education recognizes him also for his services as a member of the Arkansas State Board of Higher Education and as a member of the Board of Trustees of Hendrix College.

Mr. Hembree began his career as Assistant Claims Manager of Arkansas Best Freight System, Inc., rising through a series of promotions to his position as Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the company's successor firm, Arkansas Best Corporation, which has a number of subsidiary companies. His business leadership has been recognized through his service as Vice President and Director of the National Association of Manufacturers, as President of the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce, and as a Lifetime Honorary Director of the Fort Smith Chamber of Commerce.

His interest and participation in activities that will benefit the people of Arkansas and the nation are extraordinarily impressive and wide in scope. He is chairman of the Board of Trustees of St. Edward Mercy Medical Center in Fort Smith and led a large fund raising drive to build a new hospital at the Center. He has served as Arkansas Chairman of Radio Free Europe, as Chairman of the Arkansas-Oklahoma Livestock and Educational Foundation, as a Director of Region V of the Boy Scouts of America, as President of the Sebastian County Heart Council, and as Director of the Fort Smith Civil Air Patrol. He is chairman of the Executive Board of the University of Arkansas Development Council.

Mr. Hembree was honored with the Outstanding Young Man in Arkansas award in 1967. He received both his Bachelor's and Law degrees from the University of Arkansas.

Sidney Sanders McMath

Sidney Sanders McMath helped to construct an era of Arkansas history that will be remembered for its progressive actions toward accelerating the State's development.

As one of the youngest and most charismatic governors in the nation, Mr. McMath articulated some of the most urgent educational, economic and social needs of the State and took strong initiatives toward meeting them.

As a student at the University of Arkansas, as a practicing attorney, and as governor, he has exemplified the eloquent dynamism so characteristic of effective leadership.

His orientation toward a political career began in his student days when he was elected president of the student body and was elected class president during each of his first three years at the University. Upon receiving his law degree at the University in 1936, he was immediately commissioned as an Honor ROTC graduate by the Marine Corps, beginning a military career that culminated with his appointment in 1966 as a Major General in the Marine Corps Reserve, and his election as President of the Marine Corps Reserve Officers Association and the Marine Corps League. He served at Guadalcanal and Bougainville in World War II, receiving the Silver Star and Legion of Merit for his heroism.

Following the war, he was elected prosecuting attorney in Garland County and attracted national attention in his fight against a gambling syndicate and a well-entrenched political machine.

Elected governor in 1948, he served for two terms, and gave impetus to industrial development and to the construction of an improved highway system in Arkansas. He was also one of the early advocates of strengthening the economic opportunities of low income groups and the building of improved racial relationships in the State. In recent years, he has been a partner in a highly successful legal firm in Little Rock. His professional achievements include his current service as President of the International Academy of Trial Lawyers, and as a member of the Board of Governors of the American Trial Lawyers Association. He served on the Advisory Council to the Secretary of Defense from 1966 to 1968.

In 1948, Mr. McMath was elected one of the 10 outstanding young men in America by the National Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. McMath has the distinction of being the only father in Arkansas who has three sons who are all graduates of the University's School of Law.

TOVEY

*Pure as the dawn on the brow of thy beauty
Watches thy soul from the Mountains of God
Over the fates of thy children departed
Far from the land where their footsteps have trod
Beacon of hope in thy ways dreary lighted
Pride of our hearts that are loyal and true;
From those who adore unto one who adores us,
Mother of Mothers, we sing unto you.—Brodie Payne*
